

E-Mail

NEPA Task Force Web Site Reports a New Feedback Entry:

Name: Monte Seehorn

Email Address: mseehorn@adelphia.net

Comments: The categorical exclusion should be expanded as much as possible to allow federal agencies to implement planned management activities without going through exhaustive NEPA processes that are presently being used to stop all activity on government land by preservation groups. All agencies (at least the Forest Service) have enough local specialists to complete site specific analysis for proposed projects.